

JOSEPH G. CORSARO

PROVIDING COMPREHENSIVE, INSIGHTFUL
LEGAL SERVICES TO BUSINESSES

Firm founder Joseph G. Corsaro, selected to Super Lawyers, has more than 25 years of experience in business and tax planning for closely held businesses and high-net-worth individuals. He is certified as a specialist in federal tax law by the Supreme Court of Ohio, a prestigious distinction held only by a small group of attorneys.

Corsaro works with companies ranging from small businesses to multimillion-dollar enterprises, and assists clients in planning all levels of their businesses, helping them preserve cash flow and grow operations. He leads a team of talented attorneys who work collaboratively to meet clients' business needs.

Corsaro's practice includes strategic business and tax planning for business entities; family wealth transfer and business succession planning; estate planning and probate; asset protection planning; taxable and tax-free acquisitions, dispositions and mergers; IRS controversies, audits and appeals; qualified and non-qualified retirement plans; executive compensation planning and employee fringe benefits; and civil litigation.

SCOTT R. POE

EFFECTIVE BUSINESS STRATEGIES IN AND OUT OF THE COURTROOM

Scott R. Poe, named to Rising Stars, takes pride in learning all aspects of a client's business so he can provide proactive legal counsel. His practice involves business planning and transactional work; federal, state and local tax controversies; audits and appeals; corporate law; business financing; and commercial litigation, including breach of contract and shareholder disputes.

Poe assists clients in structuring their business transactions with maximum efficiency. He also helps clients economically resolve business disputes and focuses on structuring transactions up front to minimize the risk of disputes. Skilled in the courtroom, Poe is always prepared to help.

He thrives on the collaborative atmosphere of the firm, in which the attorneys share knowledge to best serve clients in all areas affecting their businesses, including taxes, human resources, employment issues and intellectual property.
